

Slovakia

The country where history meets modern day

Are you organizing a conference or a congress in a nice quiet place or directly in the centre? Are you expecting participant from all over Europe or the world and would you like to offer something centrally located and still not very well known?

Slovakia is the right choice.

Slovakia, a unique country located in the middle of Europe. A perfect destination for meetings, incentives, congresses and events. Modern cities and their surroundings supported by infrastructure, quality and service. Slovakia is the country that is somewhere you have never been before. The countryside is brimming with unspoiled natural beauty. You will come across a multitude of outstanding cultural treasures, and taste delicious Slovak food and drinks which, with the influence of Hungarian, Austrian and Czech regional cuisines, is out of this world.

Top 10 reasons for MICE in Slovakia:

1. Stable and Safe Destination

3. Scenery

– unspoiled nature and a beautiful landscape. Slovakia has 9 national parks, 14 protected landscape areas with more than 40% of their territory forested, 12 underground caves open to the public with magnificent ice or stalactite formations (the remarkable Ochtinská aragonite cave, one of three such caves worldwide)

5. Cities & Towns

– rich history and historical heritage from all periods. Historical cities and towns are spread all over Slovakia. Many of them have precious historical centres, and 18 towns are listed as urban monument reserves. Historical cities and towns are suitable for teambuilding events and incentive tourism.

7. Thermal water & spas

– more than 1 400 mineral and thermal springs, many with healing properties and 22 spa resorts with complete medical care offering treatments based on mineral and thermal waters. Climatic spas in the High Tatra Mountains.

9. Gastronomy, traditions and folklore

- tasty traditional gastronomy and excellent wines. "Bryndza" stands for a traditional Slovak speciality, a soft cheese made from sheep's milk. Within the European Union it can only be produced in Slovakia and is distributed under the name "Slovenská bryndza". Distinctive living folklore and traditions differing according to the regions. Folk art and ancient crafts.

2. Great location and easy to reach

– good travel connections by air, train, road, boat

4. Bratislava

– the city of past and present. Bratislava is the capital city of Slovakia and has in the last few years become one of the fastest growing new congress and conference cities in Europe. Bratislava has an excellent location – close to the borders of Austria, Hungary and the Czech Republic. Very good access from two international airports – Bratislava airport (15 minutes drive) and Vienna airport (35 minutes drive along the motorway).

6. History, Culture & Heritage

– 5 cultural and 2 natural sites on the UNESCO World Heritage List, 1 artefact of intangible cultural heritage – the fujara (a traditional musical instrument), 180 castles and 559 chateaux and manor houses, 10 open-air museums of popular architecture, 45 little wooden churches of 3 types (Gothic, Evangelical and of the East Christian rite), some built without using a single nail), numerous museums, galleries, and technical artefacts

8. Active holidays

– Slovakia has excellent conditions for enjoying active holidays in summer and in winter, e.g. more than 40 well-equipped ski resorts with 7 five-star ski resorts, 12 golf resorts, marked cycling tracks, mountains suitable for hiking, trekking, mountaineering, rivers and lakes suitable for water sports

10. Busy cultural and social life, not limited to the capital city.

You can be pampered at the Slovak spas. You can feel the unforgettable adrenaline buzz in the mountains both in winter and summer. Marvel at the natural and cultural UNESCO world heritage sites; savour every mouthful of the countryside. Get this experience at one of the upcoming events in Košice – European City of Culture 2013.

Bratislava - the Gate to Slovakia

Capital of the Slovak Republic, Bratislava is situated in the triangle of the cities of Prague, Vienna and Budapest, and is accessible by plane, boat, train or car.

Bratislava is the political, economic and cultural centre of the country, the residence of the president, government, parliament, ministries and national government bodies, a university centre, the home of many museums (20), galleries (8), theatres and other institutions. Although Bratislava belongs among some of the youngest cities in Europe, the history of the city dates back to medieval times. In the past, it was the coronation city of the Hungarian kings. The city centre is a place where history breathes from the buildings and the picturesque streets are full of cafes, restaurants and bars where you can enjoy a glass of wine from the hillsides of the Low Carpathians.

Bratislava is a city of culture. In the past Beethoven, Mozart, Haydn, and List played concerts here. Currently, the city is alive with festivals and cultural events. It is a dynamically developing metropolis full of young people inspiring a city with a unique atmosphere.

Bratislava offers:

- Conference and meeting rooms for up to 1000 participants
- Business negotiation facilities
- Investment opportunities
- More than 60000 m² of exhibition space
- Hotel accommodation with more than 11 400 beds in 124 categories of 5 *, 4 *, 3 *, from boutique hotels with 24 rooms up to hotels with 274 rooms
- Hotel chains offering various categories of accommodation and conference rooms for up to 400 participants
- Incentive travel directly in Bratislava and its surroundings

Culture and gastronomy of Bratislava and its surroundings, and proposals for incentive tourism:

- Historical Bratislava
- Opera, classical music and concerts
- Boat trip to Devin Castle
- Jazz evening on the Danube
- Christmas and Easter markets in Bratislava
- White Water Rafting at Čunovo
- Golf and outdoor activities (adrenaline Bratislava – motor sport, paintball, balloon flights, flying a hovercraft, helicopter, etc.)
- Traditional goose dinners in villages close to Bratislava
- The Low Carpathian Wine Road (special event Cellars Open Day in November)
- Red Stone Castle – museum of furniture and a special venue (The most extensive underground facilities in Central Europe – cellars under the castle of Červený Kameň. At present, these spaces organize special events.)
- Traditional hand-made ceramics (Majolika) in Modra

Incentives and special venues

The largest congress facilities are in the capital of Slovakia – Bratislava. However in recent years, new, high-level categories of hotels have also been built outside Bratislava in other regions of Slovakia. For smaller conferences, seminars and workshops the historic spa towns or mountain resorts in beautiful surroundings of the Slovak nature are ideally suited. So why don't you hold an event in:

- Košice and Košice region
- High and Low Tatras

Wellness & Spas

Slovakia, with more than 1200 thermal and mineral springs, can offer a wide range of spas and wellness centres. 23 spa resorts located all over Slovakia offer healing procedures with thermal water, mud, wellness programmes, beautifying as well as weight loss, or active stays. The most important Slovak spas include Piešťany, Turčianske Teplice, Rajecké Teplice, Dudince and Bardejov. In the past, our spas were also visited by several famous people such as Ludwig van Beethoven, the Russian Tsar Alexander, the wife of Napoleon I and Empress Elisabeth of Austria (also called Sissy). You can experience fun, relaxation and recreation in one of the thermal aquaparks which are open all year round.

Outdoor Activities

By making the most of Slovakia's spectacular natural landscape and culture, your events become magical and memorable. Talk to Slovakia's event professionals about how to make the most of your event. You can experience:

- Wooden rafting, rafting
- Walking, Hiking, Trekking
- Skiing, Ski-mountaineering
