Useful information

Entrance to the Slovak Republic and visas

The Slovak Republic is a member of the European Union since 2004.

There are different rules for citizens of other EU member countries than for tourists from other parts of the world. Citizens of EU member states need a passport or other ID document to enter the Slovak Republic. The same is valid for citizens of Switzerland, Norway, Iceland and Liechtenstein, who enjoy free movement around the EEA (European Economic Area).

Visitors from other countries require a passport with at least six months validity on the day of arrival and in some cases a visa. A list of states whose citizens require a visa to enter the Slovak Republic can be found on the Ministry of Foreign Affairs website.

The Slovak Republic entered the so-called Schengen zone in 2007. This group of countries have come together to enable people to cross their borders without passport controls. Despite this, a valid passport or other ID will still have to be carried at all times.

Insurance

Visitors from abroad are recommended to arrange their own insurance before travelling to the Slovak Republic. Mountain rescue insurance in Slovakia is obligatory. Insurance covers mountain rescue service costs on technical rescue securing or search action in the mountains. It is intended for Slovakian citizens, as well as other nationalities, who visit the mountains in Slovakia. Insurance can be arranged for one year or for a fixed number of days.

Health care

Medical treatment provided for a fee is stipulated by the appropriate Slovak regulations or by international agreements made between the government of the respective state and that of the Slovak Republic.

Voltage, sockets, and plugs

220 V, European norm, three-pole earthed plugs have two pins and a hole in the plug and one pin with two holes in the socket.
